FMC Corporation Increases European Prices for Persulphates

PHILADELPHIA, May 30, 2012 – FMC Corporation (NYSE:FMC) announced today that effective June 1, 2012, or as contracts permit, it will increase its European prices on ammonium persulphate by €40 per tonne and sodium persulphate by €70 per tonne. This increase will apply to all persulphates sold by FMC’s subsidiary, RheinPerChemie GmbH.

“This increase is necessary to support continued investment in plant operations while offsetting increased production and other business costs,” said Anthony O’Donovan, global persulfates business manager, FMC Peroxygens Division. “FMC is committed to continue providing our customers a high level of product quality and supply reliability.”
